

We are a German „Mittelstand“ family business and rank through our specialization unique hygienic bottling technology to the leading of the sector. With committed employees, we produce and sell on the locations Schwollen and Thalfang high-quality goods.

We are looking for amplification for our team a Laboratory employees

Your tasks

You work on food technology investigations in the production process of Mineral water, fruit juices and sodas

You are testing the properties of raw materials, semi - finished products, finished products and ensure their quality

You carry out chemical and microbiological tests

Checking the hygienic status of the filling lines

Your Profile

Completed training in laboratory biology, chemistry, pharmacy, you are food technicians or have a degree in food technology

You have already gained first professional experience

You have a technical understanding of production and process flows

We expect a sure appearance and assertiveness

Your functioning is independent, self-responsible and careful

You have the willingness to shift work (early and late shift)

You can integrate well into a team

You also have good knowledge of Microsoft Office

Your advantages

We work in the team, have flat hierarchies and appreciate solution-oriented and flexible work.

We offer you a varied range of tasks with a wide range of tasks design opportunities.

We approach and offer the personal development opportunities of our employees (m / f) targeted training.

You will receive a performance-oriented remuneration.

We are happy to achieve your complete application documents. These should contains CV, resume, certificates and your salary expectation plus your earliest starting date.

Post: Hochwald Sprudel Schupp GmbH, Human Resources, Am Sauerbrunnen 25, 55767 Schwollen.

E-Mail: bewerbung@hochwald-sprudel.de

