

We are a German „Mittelstand“ family business and rank through our specialization unique hygienic bottling technology to the leading of the sector. With committed employees, we produce and sell on the locations Schwollen and Thalfang high-quality goods.

We are looking for amplification for our team a System Engineer (m / f) with Development objective shift supervisor (m / f) Location: Thalfang (Rheinland-Pfalz)

Your future tasks

After intensive training and the passing of a one year development to the shift managers in production you are organizational and personally responsible for filling plants

PET. In this role you work closely with the other shift managers, the plant management as well as the adjacent departments such as maintenance, quality management, logistics, etc. together. The goal is to secure the respectively defined quality, quantity and delivery reliability.

The main tasks are

- Organization and personnel management of all employees of the respective facilities with the goal the production measures
- Technical support including training and coaching of employees in the jurisdiction
- Coordination of the production process with the upstream and downstream processes
- Support for the preventive maintenance of machines and plants
- Participate in the improvement of the production processes in close cooperation with Plant management and maintenance
- Team member or team leader for project-related working groups

Your Profile

- Completed training in the mechanical or technical area desired
- Successful and proven leadership experience
- Experience as a plant operator in industrial production food industry
- Very good technical understanding
- Organizational skills
- Analytical, process-oriented thinking and action
- Team Player
- Willingness to work in shifts.

We offer

An intensive and practice-oriented further development to the layer manager

Flat hierarchies, solution-oriented and flexible working different tasks

We attach great importance to long-term cooperation.

You will receive a performance-oriented remuneration.

We are happy to achieve your complete application documents. These should contains CV, resume, certificates and your salary expectation plus your earliest starting date.

Post: Hochwald Sprudel Schupp GmbH, Human Resources, Am Sauerbrunnen 25, 55767 Schwollen.

E-Mail: bewerbung@hochwald-sprudel.de

